

The effect of the contents of the said.

First how bewaileing that in the law offended his sacred mat^{ty} & therefore (in all humilitie) was at ydon for the said, wth a joyfull acceptance for their employnt in his mat^{ty} service, & wth a whole fall of my lord of Emboldland promise as from his mat^{ty} that (if they were transported) they should have as good livinge provided for them as they enjoyed in Este, and to remaine wth their owne livinges untill that promise was performed, and lastly a submissive offer for the better advancement of his highnes service.

- M^r Grayme mote.
- Richard Grayme beardsbill
- Antoine Grayme mote.
- Robert Grayme fownd.
- Armand Grayme loggan.
- George Graime milhill
- M^r Grayme Langtowne.
- M^r Grayme milke wylly
- wth others now employed in his mat^{ty} service.

We in the behalfe of the Kinge of ^{all} Knight, do praye you his mat^{ty} Commission^s wth the words of our hartes, to present his our ^{humble} petition to his most royall mat^{ty}.

To the Kinge most excellent and sacred mat^{ty}

Most gracious and mercifull soveraigne, we your highnes poore and obedient subjects do fall & prostrate our selves before your mat^{ty} sacred feet bewaileing our former hard luck that in it should have bene so hard mischance to have offended so gracious & mercifull a promise, yet we think our selves most happye treatment, that since it hath pleased your sacred mat^{ty} any way to employe us in your highnes service, w^{ch} if god be our witness, we do most willingly imbrow and shall do our best endeavors to performe the same (as becomingly dutifull & obedient subjects) to the glory of god contented to your mat^{ty} and Comendato to our country for rather then the least sparks of disobedience should any way appeare in us, we would enter into the gallies and to worke at galley slaves, all the dayes of our lives and we do most humble crave at your most sacred mat^{ty} hands (even for the Kinge of Kinges sake) to have grace, mercie, pity & compassion of our many poore distressed wivres & infants to have grace, mercie, pity, as in the state of your wisdom and overhaule, had not your no doubt but your sacred mat^{ty} (being knowne to be the most gracious godly & benign promise that ever was at his day upon the face of the earth) will not suffer so many poore wivres of women and children to be suppressed from their livinge, and to get 1000 wivres to begg and serve, if it might stand wth your highnes pleasure