First how bewailinge that in the law offended his sacred matie & therefore in all humilitie) was not given for the said, wth a joyfull acceptance for their employment in his matie service, Secondly a release full of my lord of Cumberland promysed at from his matie that (if they were transported) they should have as good livinge provided for them as they enjoyed in Este, and to remaine wth their owne livinge until that promise was performed, and lastly a submission offer for the better advancement of his highnes service.

W^{ch} in the behalfe of the Kinge of England, do praye you his matie Comissioner w^{ch} the heards of our hartes, to present the same ^{humbly} to his most royall matie

To the Kinge most excellent and sacred matie

Most gracious and mercifull soveraigne, we your highnes poore and obedient subjects do fall & prostrate our selves before your maties sacred feete bewailinge our former heinous sinne that w^{ch} it should have bene so hard misfortune to have offended so gracious & mercifull a prince, yett we think our selves most happye treatment, that since it hath pleased your sacred matie any way to employe us in your highnes service, w^{ch} we be our witness, we do most willinglye imbrace and shall do our best endeavours to performe the same (as becominge dutifull & obedient subjects) to the glorie of god contented to your matie and Comendato to our countrye for rather then the least sparks of disobedience should any way appeare in us, we would enter into the gallies and to worke at gallic slaves, all the dayes of our lives and we do most humble crave at your most sacred matie hande (even for the Kinge of Kings sake) to have grace, mercie, pity & compassion of our many poore distressed wives & children w^{ch} we have at this instant, as in the state of good order and obedience, had not had no doubt but your sacred matie (beinge knowne to be the most gracious, goodly & benign prince that lived at this daye upon the face of the earth) will not suffer so many poore soules of women and children to be suppressed from their livinge, and to paye 1000 yearlye p^{er} soule to buye land service, if it might stand wth your highnes pleasure
